FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SPINE TEAM TEXAS[®] DOCTORS NAMED "TOP DOCS" BY FORT WORTH, TEXAS MAGAZINE

Fifth year in a row for Spine Team Texas[®] to be recognized.

Southlake, Texas (April 11, 2011) — Spine Team Texas[®] has done it again. For the fifth year in a row, Fort Worth, Texas magazine has recognized Spine Team Texas[®] providers in its annual list of "Top Docs".

Spine Team Texas[®] specialists Dr. Michael D. Garcia and Dr. Ryan S. Reeves were named in the Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation category. And Spine Team Texas[®] specialist Dr. Amit T. Darnule was named in the Pain Management category. To download full biographies and learn more about the recognized Spine Team Texas[®] doctors, visit www.spineteamtexas.com.

"To be named to this list is extraordinary. It sets the bar higher to achieve our mission of an unparalleled patient experience," states Mark Hood, CEO of Spine Team Texas[®]. "I know that each of our staff is proud to work alongside such outstanding providers."

Picking a doctor is one of the most important decisions most people make. And going through the process can take time. To make it easier, Fort Worth, Texas magazine continues their long tradition of letting the doctors themselves advise readers on the "Top Docs" in the area.

In order to find the "Top Docs" for 2011, Fort Worth, Texas magazine sent surveys to area physicians asking them to name the best doctors in the area and to cast ballots online for their top choices in a variety of specialties and sub-specialties. The results from the surveys were tabulated by a firm outside of Fort Worth, Texas magazine and the credentials of all the physicians named were confirmed.

The full list of the area's "Top Docs" can be found in the April 2011 issue and online at www.fwtexas.com.

About Spine Team Texas
